"Pleaz listen to us lass." Begged Merida. But Rapunzel was being obstinate.

Tooth softly began to sing a song to her.

You better take it from me, that boy is like a disease

>You're running, you're trying, you're trying to hide

>And you're wondering why you can't get free
He's like a curse, he's like a drug

>You get addicted to his love

>You wanna get out but he's holding you down
'Cause you can't live

without one more touch

_He's a good time cowboy casanova
>Leaning up against the record machine_
>Looks like a cool drink of water
>But he's candy-coated misery
>He's the devil in disguise
>A snake with blue eyes
And he only comes out at night

>Gives you feelings that you don't want to fight

>You better run for your life_

I see that look on your face
>You ain't hearing what I say
_So I'll say it again
>'Cause I been where you been
And I know how it ends
>You can't get away
_Don't even look in his eyes
>He'll tell you nothing but lies
And you wanna believe
>But you won't be deceived
_If you listen to me
>And take my advice

Rapunzel looked at them in shock.

"Really?" She gasped. The others nodded their heads in unison.

"But why would he do that?" She whimpered, on the verge of tears.

"Once a thief, always a thief." Answered Astrid. Tooth and Merida murmured their agreement.

"We're trying to keep you safe." Added Tooth.

"Ah don' wanya to git hurt punz." Put in Merida.
